Note

In the Kalkunte Agrahar of the Hoskote Taluk, which is a Jodi inam in the enjoyment of certain private individuals, the Vrittidars appear to have constructed the temple of Sri Ranganathaswami in the Agrahar. One of the Vrittidars appears to have built his house encroaching upon the temple land & the matter has gone up to the Court. The Additional Munsiff of Bangalore sent a notice to the Muzrai Secretary as a temple was concerned. When the was called upon to issue orders to the Amildar to appear before the Court, it is reported that the temple in question is not a Muzrai institution – not being endowed with either land inam or cash grant –

Private parties are however contending the right of the temple. May the Dy. Addl. Munsiff be informed that Govt in the Muzrai Depart will not interfere

Sir,

Adverting to your memo No 5729 dated 5th Instant, forwarding copy of docket to the Additional Munsiff of Bangalore, stating that the Government in the Muzrai Department will not interfere in the matter of O.S. No 640 of 1905-06 on the file of his Court on the ground that the Sri Ranganathaswamy temple in the

Kalkunte

Kalkunte Agrahar of the Hoskote Taluk is not a Muzrai Institution, I have the honor to submit herewith, in original Report No. 778 dated 6th June 1907, from the Amildar of Hoskote, reporting that the said temple is endowed with Inam lands in Jodi Banahalli village. He further states that the first report made by him to the effect that the temple was not a Muzrai Institution was based on the strength of the entries in the Quit Rent and Ready money grant Registers. The Register of Muzrai Institutions which was not referred to while making the previous report shows that the temple is a Muzrai Institution. In these circumstances, I request the favor of your instructions as to whether the Amildar should be required to attend the Court on behalf of Government.

The enclosures received with your memo under reply are herewith returned.
